The Baron in the Trees (Italian: Il barone rampante) is a 1957 novel by Italian writer Italo Calvino. Described as a conte philosophique and a metaphor for independence, it tells the adventures of a boy who climbs up a tree to spend the rest of his life inhabiting an arboreal kingdom. Calvino published a new version of the novel in 1959.

~~The Baron in the Trees - Wikipedia~~

Our tree-bound Baron, Cosimo, succeeds in being inspired by the Enlightenment, which was transforming society around him (this is the time of Voltaire and the French Revolution), and also by Romanticism, its antithetical spirit. He is practical, grounded in spirit and ingenious, yet at the same time a visionary who floats above the ground.
