Hardcover

* Be pretty, sweet, and nice * Be athletic, be competitive, and get straight A's * Be impossibly perfect That is the premise of The Triple Bind--that the expectations for young girls growing up in today's society have gone overboard--expectations set impossibly high and difficult to achieve. A girl is supposed to be good at "girl stuff", like friendships and emotional support of her family, yet excel at "boy stuff", like math and science and athletics.
